

The Death AND Resurrection

Every Sunday at the Leachville church of Christ, we take time to observe the Lord's Supper. We break bread that serves as a symbol of Christ's body that was broken and we drink juice that represents the blood that poured out of Him. All of this is done in accordance with the instruction that Christ himself gave to His apostles in Luke 22:19 when he says to, "do this in remembrance of me."

However, today is the perfect day to remember that the death of Christ would be of significantly less value to each of us if He had not risen from the grave. If the body that was broken and emptied of its life-giving flow hadn't lived and walked again, then its death would be borderline insignificant.

Thank God for the resurrection of Jesus Christ and the hope that it gives to each of us!

(3) Will you _____ Him? (John 20:15)

We must cling to that which _____!
