

We Can Resist Satan

When you read of Satan tempting Jesus in Matthew 4, what are your thoughts? I am sure you rejoice that Jesus defeated Satan. Does it make you glad that Jesus remained pure so He can be our Savior? Or, do we look at Jesus and think that we also can overcome Satan and his temptations?

Jesus is tested and tempted by Satan. All during these encounters with Satan, Jesus does not use any supernatural, non-human powers to defeat Satan. Jesus did not use His "Son of God" powers to overcome Satan. Jesus used His knowledge of the Bible and His trust in God, the Father, to care for Him to defeat Satan.

Wait a minute. You and I have those powers! I can learn God's word well enough to know how to respond to any of Satan's attacks. I can learn to trust God to take care of me every day in every situation.

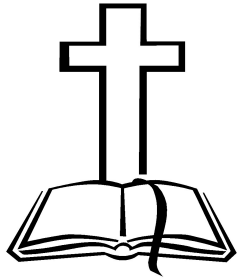

Jesus shows us that there is nothing, no item or idea, that is worth obtaining if we have to give up who God intends us to be. Jesus refuses to sacrifice His calling from God for physical comfort, safety and security or power.

Jesus gives us a model that not only shows us He can defeat Satan, but He also models how we can win over all of Satan's temptations.
