

How Awesome Is This Place

Jacob is going to Haran to find himself a wife. At least, that is probably the reason he tells people. The real reason is he is running for his life. His twin brother has pledged to kill him. He is on a journey of about 450 miles.

He comes to a place called Bethel. Jacob has left home so fast he did not bring a pillow. After a day of hard traveling, he stops. He uses a rock for a pillow. He should have known he was not going to rest well with a rock for a pillow.

Sure enough, he has a dream that disturbs his sleep. In the dream he sees a stairway to heaven. He sees angels ascending and descending on this stairway.

In Genesis 28, Jacob wakes up and says, "How awesome is this place. Surely, the Lord is in this place and I did not know it."

How much of our lives is lived running from one problem to another and not noticing that we are in an awesome place? How much of our lives is lived failing to notice that the Lord is in this place? Regardless of what place we are in at this time, we are in an awesome place; and if we are Christians, Jesus is with us in the place.
