

With Great Power Comes Great Responsibility

It's no secret as to who my favorite super hero is. Spider-Man has been my favorite hero since I was a little kid. What drives him to be the hero that he is has inspired me for years. What drives Peter Parker to be Spider-Man is a quote that his Uncle Ben lived and died by: "With great power comes great responsibility." He lived out his uncle's quote every day by saving lives and being a role model to people of all ages.

As Christians, we have a HUGE responsibility. We have been given the very Word of God, the Gospel of Christ, the secret to gaining eternal life. We have a power that this world desperately needs. We cannot hide it. We can look to the parable of the talents. The two servants who were given five and two talents of gold, worked hard for their master and were granted access into His kingdom. The servant who was given only one talent, hid his and because of that he was cast away from his master. Though our job, at times, seems insignificant it still bears a great weight. We have a job to do, to share the gospel to all that we encounter. Romans 1:16, For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Gentile. We have the power of God in our hands, His word, so don't shirk your responsibilities. For with great power comes great responsibilities.
