

Why Hasn't He Returned

Something that we as Christians wait in anticipation for is the day that we get to see our Lord face to face. We await His coming, but it seems like it is taking forever. It has been about 1986 years since Jesus died on the cross and rose again, making His promise that He will come again soon. We have been waiting a long time for Him, but He hasn't returned yet.

We wonder why. Why hasn't Jesus returned yet and taken us away from this wicked world? The answer is that we have a job to do; there are people who need to be saved, and the patience of God is working in their favor. God does not want anyone to be apart from Him, so He is patiently waiting for them to repent and come to His grace.

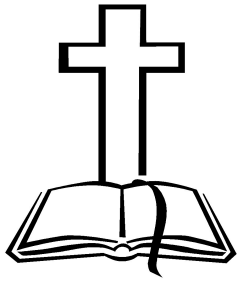

If we want Jesus to return, we will work. If we want Jesus to return, we will bring as many people to repentance as possible. The Lord will return when as many people repent as possible. Its time to get to work, Church!

2 Peter 3:9, The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.
