

Can You Hear Me Now?

You might remember the Verizon commercials that began in 2002. A common-looking man was seen in various locations, in forests, backyards, deserts, football stadiums and just about any place you can think of. He speaks into his phone, saying, "Can you hear me now? Good!" The obvious point this campaign was making is that there were very few places you could go and not have the ability to hear the voice of whoever it was that was on the other side of the phone call.

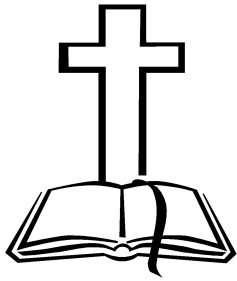

The power displayed in the voice of God is something that is truly remarkable. Can you imagine for just a moment the darkest, most secluded place that you can think of? Perhaps it is a deep cave, a dark field or a back road. Consider how the beginning of time is recorded in Genesis 1:2-3: "2 The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. 3 And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light."

There was darkness, emptiness, a complete lack of all light and physical form, but then with one phrase, one voice, it all changed. God literally spoke all that is into existence. The voice of God has a recurring power throughout His Word. The moments in the Biblical narrative that include His voice being heard by people are worthy of study and attention. This is what we will do throughout our Vacation Bible School this week. Plan to join us Tuesday – Thursday from 7:00 – 8:15 pm. Hope to see you there!
