

Run with It

If you notice, a lot of so called “Christians” tend to take one or two passages from the Bible and forge their own theology from it. The danger of that should be obvious: they leave a lot out. God’s word isn’t for us to pick and choose from. It’s for us to totally obey. But, unfortunately, that’s not the practice. People have left out baptism, repentance, and the commands to not sin. People are creating their own bibles.

We cannot allow this to happen. We, as the church, have a duty to protect the Word of God and to teach others the truth. We need to take a stand against this bizarre movement that teaches people that it’s okay to cherry-pick the Bible.

Revelation 22:18-19, I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues which are written in this book; ¹⁹ and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the tree of life and from the holy city, which are written in this book.
