

Your Questions, His Answers

Religion is at its best when it makes us ask hard questions of ourselves. It is at its worst when it deludes us into thinking we have all the answers for everybody else.

- Archibald Macleish

We all have questions about faith: questions about the nature of God or Christ, how to interpret certain biblical stories or scriptures, doctrine, theology, traditions, the relationship between religion and culture – just to consider a few. What are your questions?

We are going to be starting a new Sunday night series in a couple of weeks. This series will require your involvement. In these lessons, we will study Biblical answers to your questions. I want to encourage you to write down your faith-related questions and place them in the box located on the table in the back or hand them to me. You can also email them to me at joshvires@icloud.com. Remember, there is no such thing as a dumb question.

Proverbs 2:1-5 says, "1 My son, if you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you, 2 making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding; 3 yes, if you call out for insight and raise your voice for understanding, 4 if you seek it like silver and search for it like hidden treasures, 5 then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God."

We all have questions about faith. What are yours? Let's seek answers together this spring.
