

Do It in Christ

Have you ever wondered how a Christian can support worldly ideals? Have you ever wondered if it is okay for a Christian to be in support of sin and still profess to be in Christ? I hate to be the bearer of bad news, but neither of those things are possible. If you notice, at the beginning of each of the epistles of Paul and others, most of them state that they are a slave to God/Christ. Do we know what that means? It means that we are bound by what God tells us to do, what He tells us to say, and so on. Romans 12 even tells us to conform to God and His mindset, and the mindset of God opposes sin and opposes the world and its ideals.

How can we as Christians say that it's okay to be sinful and to live in sin? We can't, not if we are in Christ. The message is this: if you are in Christ, then you must do all things in Christ. When the Bible tells us to "do all things in Christ," it means that literally. How we sleep, talk, walk, eat, think, and function must all be in Christ.

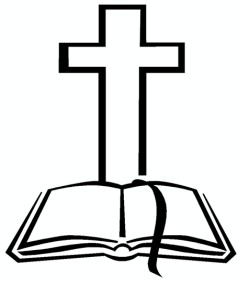

So, ask yourself, are you doing all things in Christ or are you doing all things according to yourself?

Colossians 3:17, Whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father.
