

Pay Attention

When I was a teenager, the one thing I hated more than anything else was having to listen to someone or something. I really didn't want anything to do with what that person wanted me to do; I had my own motives, and I did things how I wanted them done. My problem was exactly that: I never listened, and I never paid attention. I missed so much because of my arrogant attitude. I knew I needed to change, and it would take some humility and me being silent.

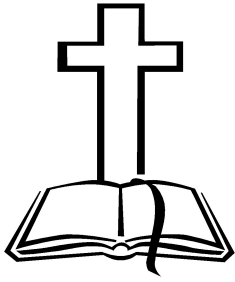

At times that's what we need to do. We as humans like to think that we know what needs to be done. When we get like this, we shut our hearts and our minds off to God, because we are too focused on what we want to do. We miss God's plan, because we would rather enact our plan. The entire time God is calling us to a higher purpose than our own, but we have deafened our ears and our hearts to Him. Its time for the church to be quiet, stop focusing on our own plans, and listen for the voice of God.

Isaiah 6:8, Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?" Then I said, "Here am I. Send me!"
