

But If I Don't Have Love

Love is the central theme of the Bible, if I can be so bold to say. That God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him will not perish, but have eternal life. God has sought to redeem us since the beginning, even when we didn't want it. Now we have the redemption, and we love the Lord back.

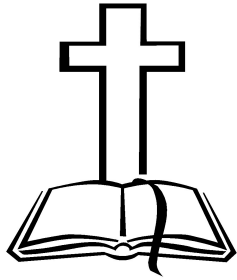

But what about love towards our fellow man? People try to water love down to only loving those of a like faith, but I say no. The Bible explicitly tells us that we are to love as God loved, meaning these people may not love us, but we are to love them regardless. Because if we don't have love, what's the point in our faith? Why do we even believe? It doesn't matter how skilled we are for God or how much we worked for Him; if we don't love, it was all in vain. Don't allow all you have done to be in vain. Love God, and love your fellow man.

1 Corinthians 13:1-3, If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. ² If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³ And if I give all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I surrender my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing.
