

The Truth in Love

When it comes to telling the truth, I think we have that down pat. But when it comes to the truth, there is more to it than just the truth itself. It must always be accompanied by something else. You see, we won't get anywhere with people if we tell the harsh truth; people don't respond too well to that. Even if you are absolutely correct, they will resent you and turn away from the truth. So, what can we do?

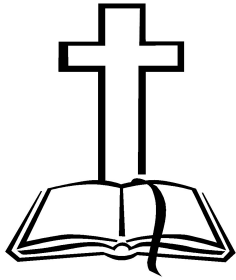

We are told in the Bible that if we are going to speak the truth, then we need to do so in love. Christianity isn't about condemning people, it's about loving people as Christ did. Christ always gave people a way out of sin, and we should do the same. So next time you need to speak the truth, and you will, make sure you do so in love.

Ephesians 4:15-16, but speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into Him who is the head, even Christ, ¹⁶from whom the whole body, being fitted and held together by what every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.
