

Out with the Old, In with the New

When Jesus began His ministry, no one knew what was about to happen. Things had been the same way for years and years, but Jesus was there to turn the entire world on its head. He didn't do things the way that the Pharisees wanted; they wanted to do things the old way, but Jesus was bringing in something new, something far better than what was once there.

When Jesus offered Himself on the cross, He set us free from the old law. We no longer have to offer a sacrifice, because He was our sacrifice, once and for all. We no longer have to worry about keeping the law, because He kept the law on our behalf.

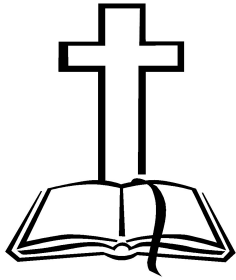

What is give to us, freely I might add, is better than anything that has ever been offered before: freedom, salvation, hope, and eternal life. Will you accept the gift that the Lord is offering you?

Hebrews 8:13, When He said, "A new covenant," He has made the first obsolete. But whatever is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to disappear.
