

Behold, I Knock at the Door

So many things come into our lives. Sometimes they are welcomed, and other times they are not. With this life being as uncertain as it is, I feel safe to say that a majority of things come into our lives either unwelcomed or unexpectedly.

Sometimes we see something that we think may be good, and we allow it into our lives only to find out that it caused us more harm than good. Sometimes we allow something into our lives only for it to leave us and make us feel empty or deserted.

All the while we are opening the door to our lives to things or things are forcing their way into our lives, there is one being that patiently waits for us to open the door to Him. He waits for us, knocking, waiting for the day that we allow Him in so that He can take control of the mess that we call our lives.

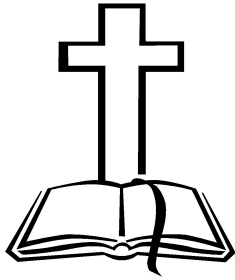

We see that life is full of uncertainties, but there is one thing that we can trust as certain: that Jesus is patiently waiting to be our Savior. He stands at the door of our lives, knocking and pleading for us to come and let Him in. So the question is, will you let Jesus in? Or will you keep Him waiting?

Revelation 3:20, Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with Me.
